REVELATION 2

SUMMARY

Today on Mission 66, our teacher John Mathews takes us through Revelation 2, where we learn the importance of maintaining our “first love” for Jesus. The chapter contains letters to four different churches in Asia Minor, each with its own set of challenges and commendations. Jesus praises the church in Ephesus for their hard work and perseverance but points out they have abandoned their initial passionate love for him. Smyrna is commended for its faithfulness amid poverty and persecution, while Pergamum is called out for tolerating false teachings. Thyatira is recognized for its works and love but reprimanded for tolerating a false prophetess. The key takeaway is that our actions and endurance must be fueled by a deep, abiding love for Jesus, who is our primary reason for living faithfully. These letters remind us to self-reflect and realign our hearts to Jesus, ensuring we’re serving him out of love rather than obligation or habit.

REVELATION 3

SUMMARY

Today's Mission 66 study with our teacher, John Mathews, delves into the messages for the last three of the seven churches in Revelation Chapter 3: Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea. The overarching theme is "lukewarm," as Jesus Christ critiques each church's actions and spiritual state. The church in Sardis appears alive but is spiritually dead and needs to wake up. Philadelphia, though weak, has kept Jesus' word and is promised protection from future trials. Laodicea is criticized for being lukewarm — neither hot nor cold — and is warned about complacency. Jesus stands at the door and knocks, seeking entrance into the hearts of believers to restore fellowship and urging them to be zealous and repent. These messages call for self-examination, urging believers to love Jesus as their first love, remain vigilant, awake, faithful and never lukewarm.

The tree of life is a tree in the heavenly city bearing 12 kinds of fruit and offering healing with its leaves.

When Jesus says he is coming soon, it signifies the imminence of his return. It could happen at any moment.

The ones who will not enter the heavenly city are those who have chosen to continue in sin, including the immoral, murderers, idolaters and all who love and practice falsehood.

The warning about adding or taking away words from this prophecy means that no one should alter the messages of the book of Revelation. This prophetic vision should be preserved exactly as it was given.

To be “outside” the city refers to those who will not be part of God’s heavenly kingdom due to their choice to live in sin.

Over 3 billion people have little or no access to the gospel.

We aim to tell them.

"I was desperate and discouraged, with no desire to continue living. But thanks to God I believed in Jesus and you were the channel to make that decision. I would like to beg you for two things: First, please send me the booklet you talked about on the program. I want to grow spiritually. And secondly, pray for me. I am in deplorable economic conditions."
