

Speaking Hope to the World®

Caribbean Roundtrip

Welcome. Bienvenida. Akeyi. Welkom. Bienvenue.

So you're going to the Caribbean.

TWR celebrates with you this opportunity to experience a part of God's amazing creation.

Assembled on these pages are resources that have been developed over the past 60 years. We freely offer them to you for use on your trip and into the future.

TWR believes anyone, anywhere, anytime should have the opportunity to hear the good news of Jesus in their heart language.

For over 60 years, TWR has been broadcasting that good news to listeners. Today the message goes out on radio to 160 countries in 230 languages and on TWR360 to anyone using an Internet-connected device.

Before you go... What Questions Do You Have?

As you prepare for your trip you may have questions about TWR's ministry in the Caribbean. Maybe you'd like to visit one of our offices or even the major transmitter station on the island of Bonaire. We encourage you to call 800.456.7897 and ask for the TWR roundtrip coordinator. Although we won't be able to make travel arrangements, we'll do everything possible to provide you with the information you seek about our outreach in the region.

You may also connect with the coordinator at:

While you are there...

TWR360 Global Digital Platform TWR Radio Broadcasting

TWR360 allows you to listen to compelling teaching, watch the Jesus film, read and search the Bible, enjoy Christian music, and view videos in over 40 languages.

This free mobile app may be downloaded from Android and Apple stores and www.twr360.org.

Available anytime you have Internet connectivity in the Caribbean, you will have access to biblical programming for these official languages spoken there:

Dutch, English, Haitian Creole, Portuguese, Spanish.

TWR360 and it's 40 plus languages are available 24/7 across the globe while you travel, at your destination and when you return home.

TWR broadcasts in eight languages by radio in the Caribbean with over 280 hours of programming each week. Broadcast languages are:

Baniwa, Dutch, English, Haitian Creole, Macushi, Papiamentu, Portuguese, Spanish.

The next page shows a list containing all the broadcast outlets that air TWR programming in the Caribbean.

To view a complete broadcast schedule for all these stations go to:

twr.org/schedule

Select the language, country or program to search and get the list of all days and times available.

TWR360 has empowered TWR to reach people with God's Word in new ways. This digital platform allows us to reach anyone, anytime, anywhere – including the United States. If you would like to apply this new awareness, we have created the “Need Hope” card. You're certainly under no obligation, but if after exploring TWR360 you believe this multilingual digital resource might make a difference in the life of a user, consider sharing a card with someone you meet on your trip ... in their heart language. And at home, you can use the cards to reach out to people in your community whose native language you don't speak. Contact the TWR roundtrip coordinator for cards in the languages you want.

Heard throughout the Caribbean

SHINE 800 AM, TWR Bonaire, 5:30 p.m. until midnight daily

Bonaire is located just off the northern coast of Venezuela and next door to Aruba and Curaçao. Broadcasting in AM at 450,000 watts, the station's powerful signal reaches a potential audience of 100 million people in nearly all the Caribbean islands, all of Cuba and southward into Brazil. The station is referred to as Shine 800 AM, broadcasting the light of Jesus Christ daily.

Plan a visit to TWR-Bonaire (Kaya Gobernador N. Debrot 64)
by contacting bonaire@twr.org or learn more at www.twrbonaire.com.

When you return home...

Back on home turf, you may realize that you've caught the vision of media ministry's potential for touching lives around the world. So, you ask yourself, "does TWR have any way that I can begin to act on this vision?" Consider a few options:

Radios for the World

TWR has over 60 years of field experience and understanding of what works on the ground in local areas.

Through TWR's Radios for the World initiative, you can purchase cost-effective, portable radios and have them distributed to listeners in many places around the world that need to hear the good news of Jesus.
