

prayer requests

FROM AROUND THE WORLD

JUNE

JUNE 1

Believers and seekers in Afghanistan face tremendous challenges in the wake of the Taliban takeover, but they can still hear the good news on their radios. Pray for listeners in Afghanistan to be blessed by the PANI¹ station broadcasts.

JUNE 2

Pray for the Knowing God drama series for the Aringa-speaking people of Uganda to begin a movement for Christ and the church in the region of Yumbe (northern Uganda) where the program will be distributed.

JUNE 3

Please pray as we continue to develop relevant content to minister to the acute needs of those living through the Ukraine-Russia crisis. We are broadcasting the hope of Christ every day from multiple transmitters.

JUNE 4

Our radio campaigns focusing on providing Radios for Africa make listeners aware of TWR global ministry while raising money to make the outreach possible. Please pray for campaigns with: Missionary Radio in Hopkinsville, Kentucky; WRFD in Columbus, Ohio; New Life Radio in Griffin, Georgia; WWIP and WPMH in Chesapeake, Virginia; KTLF in Colorado Springs, Colorado; Kinship Radio in Mankato, Minnesota; Your Network of Praise in Montana; K-Wave in Southern California; and The Light in Black Mountain, North Carolina.

JUNE 5

Please pray for the situation between Ukraine and Russia. It is a heavy burden for us to see such long-lasting suffering and the ripple effects of the violence. Please pray for God's healing touch through TWR programs focused on counseling and dealing with trauma.

JUNE 6

Please remember the TWR Bangladesh team in prayer as they seek to appoint a suitable Women's Ministry coordinator, as well as partners to assist with the translation of Thru the Bible programs.

JUNE 7

Ask God for a breakthrough in procuring funds, facilities and workers to produce programs for South Sudan, where many communities still are following traditional religions. Radio broadcasts can go a long way in bringing them the love and hope from God.

JUNE 8

Well over half of the children in South America are born to unwed mothers, according to the Institute for Family Studies (2015). Our Latin America team wants to help men be the people God wants them to be. Please pray for our next men's campaign in the region this month.

JUNE 9

Shawn and Laura Boyd have served almost six years with TWR, previously in Austria and Cyprus and now in North Carolina, where Shawn is global marketing operations director and Laura is lodge caregiver assistant. Please pray on behalf of the Boyds and their three children.

JUNE 10

Many TWR listeners in Iraq, Egypt and Sudan have family members who are from non-Christian backgrounds. Please join with our Arabic team in praying for salvation for these families.

JUNE 11

Pray for healing in the Philippines. The recent national election may have caused division among Filipinos. May the elected leaders submit themselves to the Lord's leading as they serve the country.

JUNE 12

Pray for wisdom and strength for TWR West and Central Africa and West African national partner directors – Virgile Ouendo from Evangelical Media in Benin, Florence Mbamba from Evangile FM in Côte d'Ivoire, and Joshua Ironi from Victa Media, Nigeria.

JUNE 13

Please pray for God to use the online Ukraine radio station that TWR has created. We are streaming Ukrainian and English praise and worship music, as well as short features and Bible passage readings. Pray for refugees and those inside Ukraine to be encouraged in Christ.

JUNE 14

Lift up Kalman and Annamarie Dobos, who have served with TWR for 38 years. Kalman serves on the Global Technical Team and is responsible for the remote monitoring of all AM and shortwave broadcasts that logistically belong to TWR Europe.

JUNE 15

TWR Ukraine has been experiencing a rapid increase in interest in its social media content since the outbreak of the war. Pray for wisdom as our local partners engage with their expanding audience.

JUNE 16

TWR India is endeavoring to provide systematic Bible studies in 150 Indian languages by the end of 2022. Please pray that God will equip the team for this huge task and that many lives will be touched through the studies.

JUNE 17

We praise God for the new office building in the capital of Côte d'Ivoire, Yamoussoukro, which will be home to Evangile FM. Pray that the broadcasts will touch and transform lives throughout this city, which has a potential audience of 400,000 listeners.

JUNE 18

Please pray for our partner station in Chiapas, Mexico. The AM transmitter it had was damaged, and the station is off the air. Chiapas is Mexico's southernmost state, bordering Belize and Guatemala.

JUNE 19

Bill and Lois Early have served with TWR for 36 years, including 14 years doing

English programming on Bonaire. They have been based out of the U.S. since 2002. Praise God for their years of faithful and continuing service.

JUNE 20

TWR Arabic Ministry has signed a partnership with two new local radio stations in the Middle East, where our discipleship program and many others would be aired using this outlet. Please pray for this opportunity to reach new audiences.

JUNE 21

Pray for stability and peace in countries such as Mali, Côte d'Ivoire, Benin, Burkina Faso, Nigeria, Democratic Republic of Congo, etc. TWR Africa continues to offer the gospel message to more people in their mother tongues in these countries.

JUNE 22

Please pray for TWR's partner in Indonesia as it begins producing The Way of Righteousness in a new language this month. This program builds a bridge for Muslims between the Old Testament prophets, with whom they are familiar, and the coming of Jesus Christ.

JUNE 23

Praise the Lord for how many trusted friends TWR has with radio stations in the U.S. that partner with us to share with their listeners what God is doing around the world.

JUNE 24

Please lift up Wayne Frost, who serves as TWR's director of church partnerships, and his wife, Shelley, who retired last September after 23 years with TWR, most recently as gift-processing supervisor. Wayne's primary responsibility involves TWR's U.S. church-engagement strategy.

JUNE 25

Please pray for TWR's

Photo via IMB.org

ministry friends in Russia. They faithfully seek to serve their people in different parts of the country, but the current circumstances are challenging as the future is uncertain.

JUNE 26

A new children's ministry was launched in Pakistan. Please pray for guidance for the teachers as they interact with the children. More than 9 in 10 Pakistanis are followers of Islam. Thirty-seven percent of its people are younger than 15, according to Operation World.

JUNE 27

Pray that more Africans will tune in to The Way of Righteousness. The program has been translated and produced in many African languages, including Moore (Burkina Faso), African English, Persian, Arabic, French, Nubi (Uganda) and Kirundi (Burundi).

JUNE 28

Please pray for our partner in Mexico, Radio Encuentro. They were granted a concession to broadcast in Sahuaripa, Sonora, and need to purchase a transmitter and equipment to go on the air. Sahuaripa is a small town in northwestern Mexico.

JUNE 29

Please pray for Andrew and Holly Haas, who have served for almost 24 years. Andrew currently serves as adaptation coordinator for TWR MOTION, our video ministry, out of Cary, North Carolina. Holly serves as mission director at their church in North Carolina.

JUNE 30

Please uplift in prayer the Arabic TWR Women of Hope team as they interact and follow up with women who contact them, often in privacy, and are seeking advice or have questions about God, Jesus and their faith.

JULY

JULY 1

Praise God for working in the lives of TWR listeners in Vietnam. During the COVID-19 season, many of them have felt the peace of the Lord and have grown spiritually through TWR programs. Please intercede that there might be continuing impact.

JULY 2

Pray that Sakha Ikhaya, a TWR Zulu program aimed to restore broken families, will bring healing and hope. The effects of a broken marriage can be found not only in the immediate individuals affected, but also in the wider society.

JULY 3

Use of pornographic websites was up 600% in Brazil the first year of the COVID-19 pandemic. Every Man A PURE Warrior has been translated. Pray that many men will be set free from porn in Brazil and the U.S. through this curriculum.

JULY 4

Please lift up Marvin and Landrie Heath, who have served with TWR almost 38 years. Landrie now serves in Ministry Services and as a receptionist in North Carolina. Marvin serves as audio technical consultant, studio manager and producer of radio programming and music.

JULY 5

Please pray for TWR's ministry friends in Belarus as they continue to serve their nation in these challenging times. Please pray for wisdom and God's favor over them as they produce content that will speak to the many troubled hearts.

JULY 6

Typhoon season is upon the Philippines. This may mean heavy rains and strong winds, which could potentially cause landslides, floods and other calamities. Please pray for the safety of those living in areas most affected by the weather.

JULY 7

Please pray for the West and Central Africa region, where hundreds of ethnic groups live and work together with a high degree of interaction. Pray for the national teams that continue to build the kingdom of God through media in places that may be impossible to reach otherwise.

JULY 8

The social media integration team in Latin America is seeking to reach youth. About 156 million people between the ages of 15 and 29 live in Latin America, about one-fourth of the region's population, according to the United Nations. Pray for ideas about reaching this key group.

JULY 9

Praise God for Jim and Roberta Hill, who have served 38 years for TWR in Bonaire, Slovakia and in the U.S. Jim currently is the LinguaDMS administrator for the Americas region.

JULY 10

Please pray for the ministry team to the Kurdish people as they create content to be broadcast throughout the year. Please pray for God's guidance with each step they seek to take.

JULY 11

A TWR Korea team member is traveling to the United States this month to attend two missions conferences. Please pray for safe travels, protection from illness, joyful encounters and a fruitful time of sharing.

JULY 12

Ask God's blessing on TWR Africa's gathering and analysis of media metrics for 2021. We hope to use this feedback about interactions with media users to help us learn how to improve our engagement with people, and to shape our media ministry.

JULY 13

Please pray with our Americas Donor Services team as they integrate a new remittance scanning system into their operations. This solution should enable us to process gifts more efficiently.

JULY 14

Grant and Jenna Hodgins and their children, Rachel and Matthew, serve with TWR on the island of Guam, where Grant is the station director at KTVWR. Please lift them up as a family and Grant and the KTVWR team as they seek to broadcast the good news across Asia.

JULY 15

We give praise for the opportunities God provided to TWR's partners in countries bordering Ukraine to assist local churches in aiding war refugees.

Pray that many find hope in Jesus through these contacts and TWR's gospel-based broadcasts.

JULY 16

Pray for God's provision and protection over his people in Hong Kong as their city undergoes a leadership transition. Pray that the Word of God will continue to be proclaimed in Hong Kong through mass media so that lasting fruit is produced.

JULY 17

Nate and Jeanette McGurk have been with TWR for nearly 29 years, serving in multiple countries and now based in the U.S. Nate currently is serving as content development specialist and on the global audio and acoustics team. Please ask God's blessings upon them.

JULY 18

Please pray for the house churches in Cuba. Many pastors are moving out of the country and leaving their churches without pastors. This makes the ministry of TWR all the more important. TWR regularly broadcasts the gospel to all of Cuba from the Caribbean island of Bonaire.

JULY 19

Please lift up Scott and Naren Hollinger, who have served with TWR since 1982 and 1987, respectively. They have served on Guam and Bonaire and currently in North Carolina, where Scott is Media Content Team leader and Naren is mail clerk and Ministry Services specialist.

JULY 20

We praise God for the increasing popularity of programs via social media channels in Central Asia. Pray for a good and authentic connection with the audience.

JULY 21

Please pray that God would use our media platforms to reach new and existing listeners in China. May God's Word speak to their current situation. Among effective tools in China is Mission 66, a Bible-study program in Mandarin.

JULY 22

Praise God that shortwave antennas to equip the TWR Africa Eswatini Transmitting Station became available from a station in South Carolina and were secured by TWR to reach northern East Africa and the Horn of Africa more effectively.

JULY 23

Please continue to pray for the transitions that are taking place in the leadership of the ministry to Latin America. Esteban Larrosa has served as vice president for the region since Feb. 1, and Annabel Torrealba stepped in as international director of Latin America and the Caribbean.

JULY 24

Candace Mackie has served with TWR for almost eight years. Lift up her work as ministry director of TWR MOTION, which partners with church planters and ministries worldwide to produce custom gospel-centered videos.

JULY 25

Praise God for the upgrade to the Roma studio in Serbia that is a great answer to prayer. This allows us to continue producing and broadcasting Roma programs that can be heard on several local FM stations in Serbia as well as online.

JULY 26

Freedom of religion is guaranteed by the Japanese constitution. Yet only about 2% of Japan's population follows Jesus, according to Joshua Project. Pray for more Japanese listeners to be blessed by TWR's broadcasts.

JULY 27

Pray for Leading the Way devotional programs in Amharic and Swahili, which are East African languages. Pray for all involved in production and broadcasting, and for the intended listeners to learn from the programs and have their lives changed.

JULY 28

Pray for wisdom and creativity as the Chinese Ministry team begins the scriptwriting process for the new Following Jesus program. This program will use drama and Bible storytelling to speak to the unbeliever.

JULY 29

Lift up Larry and Virginia McGuire. They have been married since 1969 and Larry has served with TWR since 1967. They've served in Bonaire, South Africa, Swaziland (now Eswatini) and, since 1990, in Elkhart, Ind. Larry has used his engineering skills in numerous ways for the service of the kingdom.

JULY 30

The team serving the Kabyle people of North Africa are facing continuous challenges, also including their family settings. Please uplift these hardworking, dedicated team members in prayer, asking the Lord to sustain them and give them strength.

JULY 31

Many of TWR Africa's partners are providing valuable insights about how they are seeing results of the media ministry initiatives on the ground. Please pray that we can have good conversations with one another about using what we learn.

AUGUST

AUG. 1

Hostilities in Yemen have gone on for years, and the fighting has often been intense. Amid the upheaval, however, listeners of TWR programming got in touch with our follow-up team, and we pray they will find peace in Jesus. Please remember the follow-up team as well, that they will have wisdom and sensitivity in responding to listeners.

AUG. 2

Please bring before God the production, coordination and recording taking place for episodes of the Christ to the World radio drama in the Zulu language of southern Africa.

AUG. 3

Children's ministry is a vibrant and effective part of our Cambodia team's outreach. They produce radio programs to minister to children across the country. The team members seek the Lord's wisdom and strength as they go about their work. Please pray for them.

AUG. 4

The team serving the Kabyle people of North Africa are facing continuous challenges, in their family settings as well as their work lives. Please uplift these hardworking, dedicated team members in prayer, asking the Lord to sustain them and give them strength.

AUG. 5

Pray for Andy and Kathy Napier, missionaries who have served nine years with TWR in the U.S. Andy is a radio producer, and Kathy is an accounting administrator.

AUG. 6

Over 500 inmates in Kenyan prisons are studying the Every Man A Warrior curriculum, and 47 have come to Christ. Ask the Lord to set them free from past sins and grow deep roots in their relationships with Christ.

AUG. 7

Somalia is nearly 98% Muslim, and Christian ministry isn't tolerated there. The country continues to suffer from terrorist attacks by militants opposing the government. Pray that TWR broadcasts will be received and that many will accept the message and believe.

AUG. 8

Seek the Lord's blessings on TWR's partner in Indonesia. The ministry's staff is seeking to strengthen their relationships with local radio stations, connect with other similar organizations and share resources with local church leaders for use in their discipleship efforts.

AUG. 9

The doors have been opened to TWR Albania to begin ministering in local prisons for women. Petition God for his favor as the staff develop relationships with inmates and share eternal hope with them.

AUG. 10

Pray for Sterling Ottun, a missionary in the U.S. who has served with TWR for 17 years. He is a representative with Every Man A Warrior.

AUG. 11

Pedrito el Pulpo is a popular children's program produced by RTM² Venezuela, and team members will lead five rallies featuring puppets based on the show's characters. May the Lord provide the team with all they need for performances, and may he touch the hearts of many children in the audiences.

AUG. 12

TWR Africa needs your prayers for success with plans to grow the ministry and take advantage of an incredible opportunity. The team seeks God's help in discipling new believers where biblical resources are scarce and following Jesus publicly can be dangerous.

AUG. 13

Many TWR partners travel often to do ministry in person. One of these is TWR Nepal, whose workers travel across the country to meet with listeners. Ask the Lord to bless them with travel mercies.

AUG. 14

We're striving to further develop ministry in Northern Cyprus, including the vibrant international student community there. Pray that TWR's resources may be made known in the community.

AUG. 15

Please pray for Larry and Barb Petersen, U.S.-based missionaries who have served 18 years with TWR. Barb is an ambassador for ministry in South Asia.

AUG. 16

Please ask God to bless the work of Dawn Cook, manager, and Laura Boyd, her assistant, as they maintain the TWR Lodge in North Carolina and care for many guests from around the world.

AUG. 17

Men Alive is a weekly program for men that is aired in South Africa and teaches men to be fathers, sons, friends, husbands and employees who conform to the image of Christ. May the Lord bless both the production and broadcast of this program.

AUG. 18

TWR Asia is organizing a golf event in support of ministries in South Asia. Pray for good weather and a blessed time together.

AUG. 19

ERF Medien Germany, TWR's oldest national partner, is expected to complete its major building project soon. As the large staff undertakes the demanding transition, pray for its members to adapt to their new settings smoothly and quickly as they continue producing quality content for the German audience.

AUG. 20

Please pray for Ted and Dawn Siemens, missionaries who have served nearly 30 years with TWR and are now based on Cyprus. Ted is director of global media training.

AUG. 21

TWR's Every Man A Warrior is growing and recruiting men for the staff of the men's ministry. Join us in praying for outstanding candidates to be brought on board to serve in the U.S., Brazil, Europe and Africa.

AUG. 22

It's TWR Africa's great desire to see children and families who listen to the program Bible Stories for Children grow in their faith. Pray for these listeners of all ages and especially for children from other religious backgrounds.

AUG. 23

Please keep in prayer the families of TWR Lanka's staff. Ask God to enable them to encourage and build strong relationships with one another even amid pandemic restrictions.

AUG. 24

We are grateful for TWR's broadcasts in the Qashqai and Gilaki languages of Iran. Please pray for opportunities to further expand radio ministry in these languages.

AUG. 25

Please pray for Tom and Elly Streeter, missionaries who have served with the ministry for an incredible half century. Today, Tom is a liaison with TWR360, and Elly manages the TWR Archives.

AUG. 26

Many rural families in Colombia are forced to leave their homes because of violence and then end up facing need after moving to the cities. Ask the Lord to care for these vulnerable families so they may learn to cast all their anxieties on him.

AUG. 27

Radio station Atoo Sifa 90.7 in northwestern Kenya needs your prayers. It broadcasts gospel programs in the heart languages of those living in the Kakuma refugee camp. Large numbers of refugees fleeing instability in Sudan, Ethiopia and Somalia have made their homes in this sprawling camp over the years.

AUG. 28

Father, we ask you to work in the lives of our listeners in Vietnam. May they seek your will, listen to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and share the gospel with others using TWR programs.

AUG. 29

Our national partner RTM² Portugal needs to broaden its support base. Pray that God will grant them wisdom as they explore new opportunities and avenues of development.

AUG. 30

Pray for U.S.-based missionary Clay Perry, a relative newcomer to TWR during the past year. Clay is a video producer with the Global Marcom Video team.

AUG. 31

TWR Africa's Worship ConneXion is a live, two-hour daily Christian music program heard on stations throughout Africa, as well as on direct-to-home satellite and online. Pray for our on-air team: Thulani, Unathi and Marinus.

SEPTEMBER

SEPT. 1

Recent reports from Eritrea tell of evangelical church leaders and members who have been arrested, imprisoned and likely tortured for their faith. Pray for the safety and tenacity of believers facing these threats and for TWR partners developing programs for Eritreans.

SEPT. 2

Ask God to protect team members and their families serving at various broadcast stations across Asia.

SEPT. 3

In early September TWR Europe and CAMENA³ will bring all their affiliates together for their annual National Partners Conference in Slovakia. Pray for a blessed time of fellowship and encouragement as participants partner in ministry.

SEPT. 4

TWR first broadcast to China on this day 45 years ago. Ask God for his continued guidance for TWR Hong Kong.

SEPT. 5

Like all of TWR's national partners, RTM² Uruguay constantly seeks to connect with new audience members. May the ministry's internally and externally produced content be discovered and heeded by new listeners of all ages.

SEPT. 6

TWR is more than just a broadcaster. We seek to build fruitful relationships with other Christian organizations and with churches and their pastors. TWR Africa asks the Lord for successful partnership agreements with pastors who want to collaborate with the media ministry for the benefit of their churches and communities.

SEPT. 7

Father, your provision is needed as TWR Bangladesh seeks a suitable space for carrying out ministry activities.

Photo via IMB.org

SEPT. 8

Christians in North Africa face persecution on various levels. Ask God to bless and use TWR's specialized programs addressing this topic to encourage Christians along their journey of faith.

SEPT. 9

Please pray for Jim and Sue Walker, TWR missionaries based on Cyprus. They're in their first year with TWR, Jim working in member care and Sue serving as a staff development specialist.

SEPT. 10

Tammy Stores serves with Ministry Services in North Carolina, where she is a receptionist and caterer for many office events. Give her strength and wisdom, Lord, as she carries out her duties.

SEPT. 11

Pygmy people mostly live in Cameroon and other Central and East African countries. TWR Africa has distributed media players to a group of the Pygmies so they can hear Christian messages in their heart language. Pray that many will accept Christ as their Savior.

SEPT. 12

Please pray for Carl Willis, a U.S.-based missionary serving with Every Man A Warrior. Carl is still in his first year with EMAW, with which he serves as director of church ministry.

SEPT. 13

TWR's partner in the United Kingdom uses a variety of digital platforms to speak to the British audience. May the U.K. team's interactions with their audience prosper.

SEPT. 14

Please pray for Brad Livermon, who is in his second year as a TWR missionary. Brad is based in the U.S., where he is the missionary care director.

SEPT. 15

We thank God that our partner Radio Integridad started broadcasting in the Amazon area where the borders of Peru, Colombia and Brazil meet. The Peruvian ministry is partnering with RTM² Brazil to reach the indigenous communities.

SEPT. 16

Christian workers are under strict control and face possible jail time for spreading the gospel in Mauritania. Among the issues besetting the African country are ethnic tensions and terrorism. Please pray for TWR Africa's ministry amid the difficult conditions.

SEPT. 17

We give praise for the launch this year of the new website for Farsi speakers, known as persianworldradio.com. Our prayer is that many more Farsi speakers will come to know the living God and experience salvation in Jesus Christ.

SEPT. 18

Today, TWR India will be holding its annual Bible quiz in 14 languages in person and online. Pray for the participants, that they will experience the power of God as they study and prepare for the quiz.

SEPT. 19

Please pray for Alex Lemus, a missionary who has served in the U.S. with TWR for about two years. Alex is an assistant video producer with the Global Marcom Video team.

SEPT. 20

Praise God for the dedicated workers making up the U.S. Donor Services team. Ask him to grant them health, keen focus and strength as they perform their daily responsibilities.

SEPT. 21

Thank you, too, Father, for TWR Africa's Audience Relations team. Please guide them as they encourage and engage with listeners, followers and donors.

SEPT. 22

TWR Asia's national partner in Korea needs wisdom, stamina and creativity as it reaches out to North Korea. Ask God to reveal ways for TWR Korea's team to minister to their brothers and sisters despite closed borders and tightened travel regulations.

SEPT. 23

Please pray for Hannah McGurk, who is completing her second year as a missionary with TWR. Hannah is an assistant video producer with TWR MOTION.

SEPT. 24

Praise the Lord for the new stations in Latin America that have chosen to cooperate with us in downloading RTM² programs and adding them to their broadcast schedules.

SEPT. 25

Stephen and Theresa Murray became missionaries via TWR Canada and are now serving the Lord with TWR Africa. Ask God to give them strength and wisdom as they seek to point people's hearts to Jesus.

SEPT. 26

The morning broadcast in English on BE 107 FM features gospel-centered music and programs. Pray that believers in Singapore will tune in to the signal from a nearby Indonesian island and be engaged and encouraged.

SEPT. 27

Your prayers are keenly sought for our ministry initiatives in the troubled North Caucasus region of Russia. We're grateful to be able to air contextualized programs there, and we pray for God's Word to bring lasting fruit in the lives of listeners.

SEPT. 28

Sandi Goodrich, who is starting her third year as a U.S.-based missionary with TWR, serves as a creative content specialist. Please ask the Lord to bless Sandi in the year ahead.

SEPT. 29

We thank God for the good results reported regarding Thru the Bible in the Guarani language. The director of a major station in the Paraguayan Chaco told of the positive effects observed among the audience in this region.

SEPT. 30

Praise God for upcoming opportunities to distribute radios to various communities in the East African region. In many places, government restrictions or a lack of churches means broadcasts are the only source of the gospel for listeners, some of whom can't afford radios.

¹ PANI = Pakistan, Afghanistan and North India

² RTM = Radio Trans Mundial, the Spanish and Portuguese form of TWR

³ CAMENA = Central Asia, the Middle East and North Africa

Giving and partnerships

To assist with giving opportunities, TWR's team of stewardship directors is trained to share our global strategy with you and help with planned-giving and estate-design matters.

Steve Hodgson

719.964.5212

shodgson@twr.org

SERVING: AK, AR, GU, HI, IA, KS, MO, MT, NC, ND, NE, SD, WY

Tim McElhaney

330.647.1789

tmcelhan@twr.org

SERVING: CT, DC, DE, MA, MD, ME, MI, NH, NJ, NY, OH, PA, RI, VA, VT, WV

Larry Walters

209.201.8031

lwalters@twr.org

SERVING: AZ, CA, CO, ID, IL, IN, KY, MN, NM, NV, OR, UT, WA, WI

Gary Whitmore

863.660.3975

gwhitmore@twr.org

SERVING: AL, FL, GA, LA, MS, OK, SC, TN, TX

CHURCH PARTNERSHIPS

Wayne Frost

OFFICE 919.460.3751

CELL 919.945.6925

wfrost@twr.org

To see how TWR can help you engage your church in missions, contact Wayne.